We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. This includes cookies from third party social media websites if you visit a page which contains embedded content from social media. Such third party cookies may track your use of the Euromines website. We don't sell the information we gather from you. If you continue without changing your settings, we'll assume that you are happy to receive all cookies on the Euromines website. We will always inform you of our current policy through an updated version of our cookie policy and ask your consent if required.

Cookie Policy

What do I need to know about cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data that are downloaded to your computer or mobile device when you visit a website or application.

We use them to:

- Remember information about you, so you don't have to give it to us again.
- Help us understand how people are using our website, so we can make it better
- Help us personalise the Euromines website to you by remembering your preferences and settings.

These necessary functional cookies do not require the consent of the user.

There are different types of cookies

First Party Cookies: These cookies are created, set and managed by the website you're visiting. And only that website can read them. By recording certain information (such as your choice of language, pages visited or how long you visit a page) we can improve your user experience.

Third Party Cookies: These cookies are created, set and managed by someone other than the owner of the website you're visiting such as social media or advertisers. Some Euromines web pages may also contain content from other sites like YouTube, which may set their own cookies. Also, if you share a link to a Euromines page, the service you share it on (for example, LinkedIn) may set a cookie on your browser. We have no control over third-party cookies - you can turn them off, but not through us. Website operators must ask your explicit consent to put them on your hard disk.

Session cookies : These cookies only last as long as your online session, and disappear from your computer or device when you close your browser (like Internet Explorer or Safari).

Persistent cookies : These cookies stay on your computer or device after your browser has been closed and last for a time specified in the cookie. We use persistent cookies when we need to know who you are for more than one browsing session. For example, we use them to remember your preferences for the next time you visit.

Management of your cookies

On our website you can choose which cookies you allow on your device.
